

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1899.

NO. 100

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Adair county's jail has only one prisoner.

At Middlesboro the public schools have been suspended until next Monday.

Milton Green, tried at London for murder, was given five years' imprisonment.

Capt. J. F. Horn's Barbourville company of State guards will be mustered in tomorrow.

Col. T. B. Ripy, of Lawrenceburg, is said to have made $150,000 out of the recent rise in whisky.

Mrs. John French, wife of the senior member of the firm of French & Kelsey, died at Yosemite.

At Berea, Mrs. Garland Kinkead was burned to death while sitting in an invalid's chair before the fire.

It is said that the death of Dr. John Huntley, of Jackson county, was caused by drinking six bottles of hot drops as a substitute for whisky.

Col. F. A. Grosscose, late of S. P. Lee's Institute, Jackson, has been placed in charge of the new department of stenography and typewriting, just established at Central University.

Jack Roberts, an engineer on the Southern Railway, was scalded to death by his engine turning over with him near Marystown, Tenn. He lived at Corbin, where he left a wife and child.

Judge Robert A. Burton, one of the most prominent citizens of Marion county, died suddenly yesterday. He was for 18 years county judge and had served in the Senate and Lower House of the Legislature.

The Paragon, published at the home of Ethel Scott, devoted only an inch or two to the trouble between him and Col. Colson. It is evident that the people of Pulaski are not bothering themselves much over the episode.

Mrs. Lila Harvey Loving, wife of Rev. J. W. Loving, died at her home in Campbellsburg, under peculiarly distressing circumstances. An interesting event was expected, but death intervened to turn it to sorrow. Mrs. Loving's sister, Mrs. C. C. Conn, of Harrisburg, died under similar circumstances in 1896. Both were daughters of Dr. W. P. Harvey, of the Western Recorder.

It is said that Lt. Ethe Scott is very near the hearts of the privates of the 4th, because they think to him is due the mustering out of the regiment. Most all of the men side with Scott as shown by the wearing of buttons bearing his picture, while the officers almost to a man side with Col. Colson. They wanted to stay in the service and get big pay for doing nothing; the men who only got $13 a month, wanted to go home.

A bit of history of the Colson family, brought out by the Colson-Scott trouble, is interesting. His father was a minister of the Gospel and accumulated a large amount of money through speculation in mountain lands. Red Colson, the oldest son, killed several men during his life in the mountains, and escaped to Texas, where he spent the better portion of his life, returning to Kentucky to die. James Colson, another son, was killed by County Clerk Renfro, of Bell county, in 1880. After he had been shot through the heart, Colson raised on his elbow and shot twice at Renfro, killing him instantly. John Colson, another son, and former sheriff of Bell county, was assassinated at Middlesboro and John Dugan is now serving a term in the pen for the killing, though many people of that section of the State believe him innocent of the crime. George Colson, a fourth son, was killed in a fight in Texas, where he went after failing in an examination for entry to Annapolis Naval Academy. Gillis and D. G. Colson are the sons living.

K. P. A.

The executive committee of the Kentucky Press Association has made out the following library program. The body will likely meet in Louisville and go to Old Point. The exercises will open with an address by President Henry E. Woolfolk, of the Danville Advocate.

"The Newspaper Wit"—J. M. Allen, Cynthiana Democrat.

"The Journalist as a Reformer"—J. L. Bosley, Paris Reporter.

"Funny Things at Mackinac"—Roah Griffin, Henderson Gleener.

"What Is News and How to Tell It"—C. T. Sutton, Owensboro Inquirer.

"The Press as an Educator"—E. A. Gullion, Carrollton Democrat.

"The Little Things that Make a Big Paper"—J. H. Collier, Franklin Favorite.

"Advancement of the Kentucky Press"—G. Meacham, Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

"Hunting the Subscriber"—John D. Babage, Breckinridge News.

"Mechanical Excellencies"—C. C. Pare, Glasgow Times.

"Running a Newspaper and a Town"—Edgar Whitmore, Grand Rivers Herald.

"The Editor as a Soldier"—George W. Albrecht, Middlesboro News.

"How to Publish a First-class Paper in a Small Town"—W. L. Riddell, Burlington Recorder.

"Should the Country Press Be Non-partisan?"—Louis Drummond, Lancaster Record.

All papers and addresses will be limited to 10 minutes.

LANCASTER.

On Tuesday Mr. David Carpenter and Miss Ella Hall were married near Paint Lick.

H. C. Hamilton and Capt. T. A. Elkin's family are down with the grippe, but the sick are generally better.

Three calves belonging to B. F. Hudson and some hogs belonging to W. L. Lawson were frozen to death Sunday night.

William Clark only saved 15 out of 60 lambs and the loss generally is in proportion. The man who has lamb engaged at 5¢ will likely make some money.

The city supervisors, R. H. Batson, W. H. Wherritt and J. G. Sweeney are in session, making a few changes in the assessor's books, though no material change is expected.

Col. R. J. Breckinridge, the INTERIOR JOURNAL'S candidate for attorney general, has many warm friends in this county and if he runs elsewhere as he will here, his nomination and election are sure.

Mr. Jesse Arnold, who went to Guthrie, Oklahoma several years ago, returned home Wednesday. He had enlisted in the 1st Territorial regiment and was mustered out at Albany, Ga., after seven months' service. He is a son of William A. Arnold.

While Dr. Wesley made a call of five minutes to see a patient at J. T. Bill's, on Danville avenue, his lap robe and horse blanket were stolen from his buggy. The doctor might have furnished the means to save a life by leaving his vehicle in the reach of some suffering mortal.

While Garrard will instruct for Hardin, Stone has many friends here, especially among the Confederate veterans, and it is safe to say that if Hardin or Goebel is not nominated on the first ballot, Stone or my man Black will be sure to carry off the plum. But who ever may be nominated Garrard country democracy will give him an undivided support.

There are various opinions and theories advanced here regarding the Colson-Scott altercation. Many believe that Colson's actions make him the aggressor, while many believe that Scott's reputation for being in so many personal difficulties in the past is not favorable to him. There are others who believe that both parties are in fault by preferring charges against each other and parading their personal differences through the press.

Capt. Mike Salter is in Louisville, where a board of survey is passing on his accounts as quartermaster of the 1st Ky. It will be remembered that the matter will be dismissed so far as his liability is concerned, and that he will be regularly mustered out and paid as the balance of the regiment will be.

A smiling Providence has come to the rescue of our suffering people with the genial sunshine and a southern breeze. Relief has not fully come in the way of coal, many having been entirely out of that commodity. G. M. Patterson went to the mountains Tuesday in search of coal. R. A. Stone sent wagons to your city and W. A. Arnold sent to Kentucky river, but the demand is far in excess of the supply. Judge Burnsides has established a soup house in our Negro annex and every precaution has been taken to prevent fatalities. Mob violence is threatened to the first man who says there was ever a colder spell of weather in this country.

The supper given by the Home Market at Boston last night, with President McKinley present, was the biggest affair of its kind ever given in this country.

There were 1,914 diners.

It took one mile of tables to seat the guests.

Four hundred chefs and waiters were required to care for the guests.

There were 12,000 plates.

It required nearly two miles of knives, forks and spoons.

Five hundred pounds of beef, exclusive of other meats and game.

One hundred gallons of soup.

Half a ton of fish.

Four thousand rolls.

Nineteen hundred and fourteen bottles of Lithia water.

Eight hundred quarts of ice cream.

One hundred gallons of coffee.

The menu consisted of eight courses and it took an hour and a half to eat it.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Prop'to, Toledo, O.

We the undersigned, also known F. J. Cheney or the last 15 years, and believe him to be eminently able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

WEST & TRUSS, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WILLSON, KELLEY & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75¢ per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THE DUTY OF GRAND JURIES.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

MT. VERNON, Feb. 15.—Circuit court convened here today. Judge T. Z. Morrow on the bench. As usual the judge's charge to the grand jury was clear, forcible, and eloquent, and I am proud to know that I read law under a jurist so able, so profound. I don't think there are two abler circuit judges in Kentucky than Judge Morrow and our own brilliant Saufley. Judge Morrow once told me that all the law there was, was in Blackstone—that other text writers only commented on what Blackstone had said. I have long since found this to be true. Blackstone indeed taught jurisprudence to speak the language of the scholar and the gentleman.

I have discovered there are two theories abroad in the land. One is that a grand jury is a kind of an investigating proceeding or a little more than a court of inquiry or investigation, to see whether or not there be sufficient evidence of guilt to put a defendant on trial before the petit jury and if so indict him and let him answer before the circuit court. In face of the public and after a full, fair trial when all the facts shall be brought out by opposing counsel, and the case fully heard, then if defendant be not proven guilty, let him be acquitted, as the burden of the proof is on the Commonwealth and she has failed to make out her case. This is certainly the true theory. I do not believe in stifling cases before the grand jury. I can now recall a few cases of murder most horrid in both Lincoln and Rockcastle, where grand juries have failed to indict the felon because of family connection and high social standing. As there can be no trial without an indictment the guilty thus escaped with impunity. But to the credit of both counties, be it said, I have not known of any recent murders in either county where the grand jury failed to discharge their duty.

The other theory is that unless the grand jury believe beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant is guilty of the offense charged they should not find an indictment. This theory is certainly erroneous, and converts the grand jury into a trial jury instead of a jury for investigating the facts of a case to see whether or not there be sufficient facts developed before the grand jury to indict the party charged and compel him to answer before the bar of public justice in the face of the world. A grand jury may have a reasonable doubt of the defendant's guilt and yet have abundant proof to justify finding an indictment. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the case was submitted to a petit jury upon the same facts they might have had no reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt and might have hung him or sent him to the penitentiary. The facts of a case can never be brought out as fully before a grand jury by the unpracticed foreman as by a Commonwealth's attorney, who has been educated to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of dishonest witnesses, who often defy a grand jury and refuse to tell what they know, and have to be reported to the court and sometimes even jailed by him to coerce the truth from their unwilling lips. As one petit jury may sometimes come in one of hanging a defendant, and the next jury acquit him or a converso, so a grand jury might have a reasonable doubt of a defendant's guilt and fail to indict him, yet it may be if the

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - FEB. 17, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE poor volunteers are to be kept in the service in order to force Congress to pass the army increase bill. Secretary Alger voicing the sentiments of McKinley's message, says he will refuse to release another one until the bill is passed. In other words the volunteers are to be held as hostages at great inconvenience to them and enormous expense to the country, in order that the law making branch of the government shall yield to the demands of the executive, who seems to have a severe case of militarism.

REFERRING to the report that it was 39 below zero at Leavenworth, a Chicago paper is moved to say that a Kentuckian once told the editor that when the mercury gets to zero in this State the people immediately begin to put themselves in a condition that the thermometer is as liable to read one thing as another to them. This base slander is refuted in an amusing editorial in Thursday's Courier Journal, which conclusively knows that the Chicago man manufactured his statement out of whole cloth.

DR. CONNER, of the whitewash commission, who is supposed to voice the sentiments of McKinley, said in a speech at Cincinnati that Miles was a disgrace to the army and ought to be summarily fired. This seems to be the program of the administration, because he has dared to tell the truth about the war's mismanagement, but it had better stop and study a long time before carrying it out. The people won't stand everything and then have it rubbed in.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL wants its vote recorded for Louisville as the place for holding the State convention. No other city has the hall and hotel accommodations near capable of taking care of the vast crowd that will be there. Besides there is no danger of contamination from the Louisville crowd and no one need fear the result who knows how to keep in the middle of the road.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL'S Home Study Circle is a new and admirable feature of that resourceful newspaper. It began Wednesday with an article on "Governments of the World Today" by Prof. Albert Shaw, which is replete with valuable information. The course will continue four months and can be had simply for the price of the paper itself.

THE president seems determined to have an extra session of Congress or to use the threat of one to coerce legislation. He threatened to call one if the peace treaty was not adopted and now he says he will have one unless the army bill is passed. With that and his other lever of keeping the volunteers in service, he will likely carry his point.

THE Louisville Dispatch is kind enough to say of the INTERIOR JOURNAL and its editor, and it is highly appreciated: No Kentucky paper that comes to this office surpasses Editor Walton not only for clear, strong editorial writing, but for good, sound judgment as well. It is one of the State papers we never fail to read.

A MAN named Gosnell, from Grayson county, has shied his castor into the ace for State treasurer, but the one isn't living that can wrench the nomination for that office from R. C. Ford, of Middlesboro. Gus Richardson thinks he is running for this office, but Gus isn't in it either, a little bit.

The attempt to attach the Nicaragua Canal bill to the Sundry Civil bill as a rider failed in the House, which by a vote of 127 to 109, sustained the chair in its ruling that the amendment was not germane, and was therefore out of order. This knocks out the canal scheme for this session.

One of the men who occupied the mansion just burned, as governor of Kentucky, worked on the building as a stonemason—Thomas Metcalfe. Aaron Burr frequently darkened its threshold and every noted man in this and many other States have been guests therein.

THE grand jury at Louisville has indicted that sweet scented shrub, Councilman Climiti, for soliciting a bribe, and if conviction doesn't carry a penitentiary sentence with it, it should. Climiti seems of the sort that seems more slightly in stripes.

THE Louisville Times is moved to say that our representatives in Congress are small potatoes and few in a hill, forgetting doubtless that the unrepresentative from this district is still supposed to be one of them.

THE London Echo says we go off half shot. Very well. If Bro. Dyche will go off and whole shoot himself all will be forgiven.

In raising funds for the great campaign of 1890, Kentucky ranks third. The money is being raised by $1 subscriptions.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Argonaut plant at Lexington only brought $100.

Congressman Samuel J. Barrows, of Boston, will be librarian of Congress. It has been decided to rebuild the executive mansion at Frankfort and work will begin at once.

The democratic committee of Shelby county declared Sam W. Booker the nominee for the Legislature.

Secretary Alger says that unless the Army bill is passed the government will refuse to release the volunteers now in service.

Congressman Wheeler served notice on the House that he and his conferees would fight vigorously against the $20,000 bonus to Spain.

The Senate thanked Miss Helen Gould for patriotic services during the war and voted her a gold medal, to be presented by the president.

The second district republican railroad convention will meet in Louisville Feb. 21, to decide upon the time, place and manner of making a nomination.

The Louisville Dispatch has mortgaged its assets to secure its bond issue, which are to be $80 in number, $40 of $25 and $40 of $100 each. They are to bear six per cent. and run 10 years.

The 55th Congress, when it ends its deliberation on Mar. 4, will have appropriated for expenditures of all kinds more public money by fully $500,000,000 than heretofore appropriated by any Congress.

The North Carolina Legislature will propose a constitutional suffrage amendment requiring all voters to be able to read the constitution and to have a poll tax receipt, but these qualifications are not to be applied to any person who was a voter in 1867, or to sons or grandsons of any such person.

John D. White says he will make many speeches in his canvass for railroad commissioner and invites Chairman C. M. Barnett, of the State central committee, "or his peregrinating agent, Attorney General W. S. Taylor," to be present and debate with him. He says he would also like to get a chance at District Attorney R. D. Hill.

The McEnergy resolution was passed by the Senate 26 to 22. It declares that the peace treaty does not mean that the Filipinos are to be made citizens of the U. S., nor are they to be permanently annexed, it being the intention of this government to prepare them for a local self government suitable to their wants and when this is established the U. S. shall dispose of the islands to the best interest of the inhabitants.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

Fayette county's assessment foots up $27,500,000.

There have been 17 deaths from meningitis at Henderson.

Three men were killed in a drunken riot at Dekalb, Texas.

The Filipinos are now said to be fighting among themselves.

A paper bag trust, with $25,000,000 capital, has been formed.

Judge Goodnight adjourned court at Russellville because of the cold weather.

Fulton went wet by 66, notwithstanding Sam Jones delivered two lectures there.

Richard Croker contributed $5,000 to relieve the suffering poor in New York.

The corner stone of the $40,000 addition to the Ohio Capitol was laid yesterday.

The 6-story Traders' Warehouse, Chicago, burned, entailing a loss of $750,000.

In Texas 14 persons are reported to have frozen to death during the recent blizzard.

The L. & N. and Q. & C. railroads donated a car of coal each to the Lexington poor.

Jack Glenn, who boasted that he had been drunk for 12 years, is dead at Muncie, Ind.

Jack O'Brien got the decision over Oscar Gardner in the 20-round contest at Youngstown, O.

Near Branchville, Ind., Andrew Rolt drank cobalt ink for whisky by mistake and died.

An attacke of the Chinese legation at Paris shot his Chinese secretary and committed suicide.

Hills of ice, ranging from 50 to 100 feet high, are packed in the Niagara river above the falls.

W. W. Wade, a Richmond, Va., merchant, froze to death while sitting by the fire in his room asleep.

Jacob Keller, who was shot at Lexington by King McNamara, died of his injuries. McNamara has skipped.

It is some consolation to read that the climatic conditions of the California coast are all that could be desired.

Raiders destroyed the tollgate on the Ghent & Warsaw pike Friday night, the only road not freed in Carroll county.

Robert Fowler, aged 83, and Mary Halstead, 74, were frozen to death in the Guyan Valley, near Huntington, W. Va.

Miss Fannie Cook, aged 84, fell dead in front of the fire at Hopkinsville and her lower limbs were burning when assistance came.

Near Cynthiana 20 of Newton Rees' fine cattle took refuge from the cold in his tobacco barn, ate the tobacco, and died from the effects.

Sam Blackard, his wife and six children all died of typhoid fever in Fayette county within seven weeks.

Mrs. Charles McCoy was burned out of her house, near Jeffersonville, presumably by persons who believe she killed her husband.

The statement is made that Mr. C. H. Stoll, the promoter of the combine of the Kentucky distillers, is to receive $500,000 for his services.

Miss Minnie Fontaine, a belle of Atlanta, and a member of a prominent family, has renounced society and will become a trained nurse.

Bob Fitzsimmons and Jim Jeffries signed articles for a fight some time between April 4 and May 26, before the club offering the largest purse.

Fire at Brookville, Augusta county, which started in the Review office, destroyed it, Pope's Hotel and several other buildings. Loss $10,000.

Friends of Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, widow of the late Senator Hearst, of California, say she has spent $2,000,000 in charity during the last five years.

The freakish behavior of the cold wave is illustrated by the statement of the weather observers that it was cold Monday in Texas than in Montana.

Ex-Representative W. C. G. Hobbs, of Lexington, found an ex-4th Ky. soldier trying to break into his residence and fired twice at the man without effect.

Ben Graves, Alexander Clark and Will Johnson, Collins county, Texas, farmers froze to death while attempting to walk from McKinney to their homes.

Criminals can not now escape punishment by fleeing to Mexico. An extradition treaty just agreed on permits the return of criminals now in either country.

Edward Begley, a former city fireman, was shot and killed in a crowded charity ballroom in Memphis by Calvin Miller, a lawyer, of Sardis, Miss., over a woman.

Snow covered all of Florida as far south as Tampa on the west coast and St. Augustine on the east. Vegetables were killed and the oranges were badly injured.

A fire which started in a clothing house near the corner of 3d and Race in Cincinnati, did half a million dollars of damage. The St. Nicholas barely escaped destruction.

At Washington 32 inches of snow fell and the worst blizzard in years was experienced, several people being lost in snow drifts and frozen. Railroad traffic was entirely suspended.

Gov. Bradley has offered a reward of $150 for King McNamara, the cowardly slayer of young Keller at Lexington. He would be lynched if the people there could get him now.

Flames completely gutted Stone's livery stable, James Dawson's saloon, Coulter's hardware store, and the grocery of Cox & Wells at Taylorsville. Loss $12,000. It has been but a short time since it had a disastrous fire.

"Jaydice" Kennedy, the notorious thug, murderer, highwayman, burglar and ex-convict, is under arrest in Cincinnati, charged with larceny, committed while attending the funeral of a friend. He is well-known in Louisville.

The administrator of Marion Taylor, who was hung by a mob at Scottsburg, Ind., has sued the sheriff of the county for $5,000 damages for negligence in letting the prisoner be taken. Taylor was awaiting his trial for killing his wife.

Engine 73 on the N. & W. railroad exploded in the Kenova yards and killed Engineer Everett Fields instantly, mortally wounded Fireman Fred Morris, and Brakeman Edward E. Hensley was struck by a flying piece of iron and several of his bones were broken. Low water caused the explosion.

In many Kentucky and Tennessee towns the coal situation became critical, and what coal could be secured, was doled out in very small quantities. At Kelly and Crofton, two railroad stations in Christian county, the citizens are reported to have become desperate, and to have forced a train crew to leave a car of coal at each town.

The youngest inmate of the Frankfort penitentiary is Jackson Cox, of Pike county. He is 13 years of age, and is to serve two years for barn burning. He is a bright little fellow, rather small for his age, and the services of the tailor of the penitentiary clothing department were required to make him a boy's knee pants suit of stripes.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Rev. T. J. Dodds, a noted Methodist preacher and educator, died at Covington, Bright's disease.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church of New Albany, Ind., used individual communion cups.

William Howard, of Astor, Ill., tried to kill himself because his wife joined the Baptist church against his wishes.

Blue Grass Blade Charley Moore is writing a book entitled "Behind the Bars, No. 31,348," during his leisure hours in the Columbus penitentiary, where he is proof reader in the printing office.

William Belcher, an ex-4th Ky. soldier, was badly beaten up at Middletown because he spoke in harsh terms of Col. Colson and wore a Scott button.

A heavy tide in the Cumberland threatens to sweep away many a saw log man's hope of prosperity.

The wife of Samuel Young, of the Ellensburg section of Casey, is dead after a long illness.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Jackson McMullen and Miss Celesta Bastin were married at S. B. Bastin's Thursday.

The lingerie which Miss Fair is to wear on her wedding day cost, it is said, $10,000.

Allen Gilden, of Pulaski, and Miss Mollie McMullen were made one at the bride's home near Kingsville yesterday.

John Lancaster, aged 78, and Miss Patty Richardson, 54, were married at Evansville, Ind. They had been sweethearts for 25 years.

William Helm, of LaPorte, Ind., broke the record by marrying three times in one year. One wife died and another got a divorce.

John D. Clews, aged 102 years, and Mrs. Sarah Jennings, aged 100, were married at Franklin, Pa. The bride is a cousin of Abraham Lincoln.

James Nailer and Miss Mollie Hixon, of Rowland, and James F. Payne, of Preachersville, and Miss Emma Nailer, of Rowland, were all married at Preachersville Wednesdays night, so Mr. Isaac Hamilton telephones us.

LAND AND STOCK.

Eggs are selling as high as 30 cents a dozen in Louisville.

John A. Huguely, of Boyle, had 14 cattle to freeze during the recent cold spell.

Potts & Duerson bought of J. W. Adams 300 barrels of corn, delivered at $1.35.—Climax.

Seven car loads of cattle froze to death on the Pittsburg, Virginia & Charleston railroad, in Pennsylvania.

The running races at New Orleans were stopped for several days by the cold weather and frozen ground.

MILK COWS.—Von-Grunagan & Von-Altenen shipped a car load of milk cows from here yesterday to their dairy near Louisville.

The snow blockade at Washington caused eggs to jump from 28 to 50c a dozen, potatoes from 45 to 85c a bushel and vegetables generally 75 per cent.

A. E. Hundley sold to Roy S. Beazley for Wm. Byers, of Boston, the very fancy combined gelding, Ground Squirrel, by Black Squirrel, for $200.—Advocate.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

More trotters and pacers will be out this year than in any one year before in the history of trotting. This is due to the great growing interest in the horse business. From present outlook $50,000 more money will be hung up this year than ever before.

<p

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - FEB. 17, 1899

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

GOOD, pure medicines produce good results. Quality and price govern us in our selection of drugs and if you want the very best at no higher price than you pay elsewhere, we are at your service. Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

MR. WILLIAM GOOCH is improving and is able to sit up some.

MRS. KATE DUDDERAR is convalescing from a spell of two weeks.

MRS. FRANCIS HOLTZCLAW is at Joseph Price Infirmary for treatment.

HELEN and BRYAN, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones, have pneumonia.

MISS SALLIE PURCELL, of Brodhead, was here between trains Wednesday.

MISS LULA ROCHESTER has been sick for several weeks at Judge J. W. Alcorn's.

MRS. H. L. GREER, of Pineville, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Mattingly.

MRS. W. C. SHANKS and handsome son, Hartwell, went to Lexington yesterday to visit their parents.

DON VICTOR BALLOU is back from the war and it is pretty safe to wager he won't go in the army again.

MRS. W. F. MARTIN, who has been visiting her parents, Squire and Mrs. James Raines, returned to Louisville yesterday.

W. L. McCARTY, of Kingsville, went up to Corbin Wednesday to assist local capitalists in organizing a canning company.

MISS NANNETTE HEATH came over from Jessamine Tuesday to see her sister, Mrs. A. H. Severance, who is convalescing.

JOHN WILLIAMS, of Pittsburgh, who is at Joseph Price Infirmary, is doing nicely and will be able to return home in a few days.

The many friends of that bright, young lawyer, Mr. C. C. Bagby, of Danville, are urging him to make the race for representative.

MISS IDA MAY, daughter of G. D. McCollum, of Junction City, won the place offered by the high school of that place for the best speller.

MISS LINDA MILLER will go to Danville today to be present at the reception to be given tonight by Miss Josephine Reid in honor of Miss Spence, of Knoxville.

MISS BERTHA GRUBBS, who has been ill at her sister, Mrs. Embry Beazley's, was well enough to return to Shelby City Wednesday.

THE letter head that E. B. Hayden uses in remitting for his paper shows that he is president and general manager of Caldwell Coal Co., near Hamilton, Mo.

MR. J. H. MILLER spent a few days with his old bunk mate in prison, Mr. A. Tribble, of Junction City. He is a wonderful what affection a jail term together engenders.

MRS. ADELIA WOODS telephoned us yesterday that the children of Rev. W. J. Carson, of the Methodist church, had been summoned to his bedside, it being thought he was fatally ill of pneumonia.

MR. P. W. GRINSTEAD, of Lexington, representing the American Book Co., of New York, Cincinnati and Chicago, was here yesterday. He is a cousin of Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, and like him, seems to be a mighty clever man.

A DISPATCH to C. W. Kremer at San Francisco, that his father, C. A. Kremer, at New Albany, was very ill, brought a reply from his wife that he was also at the point of death. Considered with the death of Mr. H. T. Harris, the family is a most afflicted one.

HON. GEO. H. ALEXANDER, ex-Senator from Louisville, and candidate for railroad commissioner, was here yesterday getting acquainted with the democratic leaders. He was the nominee before, but was beaten by Mr. Irwin, the republican candidate. He made a good race, but it wasn't democracy's year, and he very naturally thinks that he ought to be given a chance this time. He is a good, conservative man and would fill the position well.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

MONEY found. See T. D. Raney.

48 STAMP pictures for $1 at Earp's gallery.

ABUNDANCE of coal of all grades. Now is the time to supply yourself. J. H. Baughman & Co.

OUR stock of Canned Goods—Dried Fruits and eatables is full and complete. Call and see us. Warren & Shanks.

KENTUCKY COLONELS,
Walton's Opera House,
Saturday, Feb. 18.

SHERIFF OWENS publishes on our 4th page a list of property he will sell for taxes at March court, if not paid before.

THE Q. & C. is doing a rushing passenger business. All its trains are crowded and No. 1 Wednesday flew by Junction City with two huge engines pulling 10 cars loaded to the doors.

WINTER Lap Bobes at cost at B. K. Wearne & Son's.

FINE box stationary. New and up-to-date at Craig & Hocker's.

100 BUSHELS clover seed to sell at reduced price. B. K. Wearne & Son's.

GEE WHIZ! You never seed de like er termaters as Mr. Beazley & Carter is got.

TO LOAN.—$1,500 on good, unencumbered real estate. Will loan only the whole amount. Apply at this office.

THE American National Louisville, has been approved as the reserve agent of the Lincoln County National Bank.

THE Kentucky river at High Bridge was solidly frozen Wednesday and people were crossing on the ice as the train passed over.

THE longest train that ever passed here went South Tuesday. It had 76 cars—68 of them empty coal gondolas—and two big engines pulled them.

THE Stanford JOURNAL has the best corps of country correspondents of any paper in this section, and its Lancaster letter is about the best of the bunch.—Richmond Climax.

SPANISH FLAG.—Dr. Clifton Fowler has a piece of the Spanish flag that floated over the Morro Castle at Havana, which he will keep as a souvenir of the late war. It was sent to him by a relative, Samuel F. Phelps, formerly of Madison, who is there in the interest of telephone and telegraph lines.

DIED IN JAIL.—Jennie Carpenter, colored, has been notified of the death of her son, Coleman Carpenter, in the jail at Lexington. He died of pneumonia and was incarcerated for cutting another Negro. Carpenter was a bad egg while he lived here and was in jail for various offenses almost half of the time.

IT was W. P. Givens and not W. P. Grimes, who qualified as administrator of the late M. N. DePauw. These gentlemen's names have been confounded more than once, however, and while they were doing business at the same bank here there was so much trouble because of the similarity of names that one of them moved his bank account.

IN regard to John C. Gooch's giving up the mail route between here and Kingsville, he says that Mr. Belden failed to tell us that he, Belden, did not give to J. G. Martin, whose contract he bought, the necessary papers (Uncle Sam's check) in due time, which is his principal reason for quitting the route. He couldn't see clearly where his pay was coming from.

THE Cool home at Hustonville came near burning the other night. Mr. J. W. Allen, who occupies it, had a coal oil stove in one of the up stairs rooms for the purpose of keeping his flowers from freezing and it exploded, setting fire to the room and doing considerable damage to it. Hard work saved the building, on which the insurance had expired only a week previous.

MAKING MONEY.—Brakeman Walter Carter, of the K. C., is making money selling butter and eggs as well as drawing a good salary from the L. & N. He finds no trouble in getting 20 cents for eggs in Richmond, which he buys here at 15 cents and 22¢ cents for butter which costs him only 15 cents here. By the way Mr. Carter not long ago bought and sold a store three times one week and made money each time.

FOR FORGERY.—Marshal Joe A. Shannon arrested at Cran Orchard Tuesday Garfield Haines, wanted at Morehead for forgery, and placed him in jail here. He found on him a pair of big pistols and he looks like a man who would use them if necessary.

Haines claims that his brother Albert, did the forging and that he is in hiding near Junction City. Marshal Shannon will take him to Morehead as soon as he hears from the authorities there.

THE Kentucky Colonels will give one of their superb musical entertainments at Walton's Opera House, Saturday, 18th. One of the number is Mr. A. D. Flora, who was born in this county, and who is said to possess one of the finest basso profundo voices ever heard.

At a convention at the Baptist church here a few years ago he sang The Feast of Belshazzar in a manner which stirred the souls of every one who heard him. Don't miss the treat which the entertainment assures.

"THE coal famine in this part of the State," writes Col. W. F. Sheridan, train dispatcher, "will be broken by today or tomorrow." It was caused by the entry tracks in the mines being covered with ice, which prevented the miners from getting out scarcely any coal.

The snow and ice are fast disappearing and 75 cars were gotten yesterday and today 200 will be dispatched.

The coal men have large orders and the L. & N. has over 600 coal cars ready to place in the mines on short notice.

Lebanon suffered greatly, but was relieved by President M. H. Smith, who sent a supply from Louisville, thus heaping coals of fire upon their heads, as it were. He also sent 15 cars to relieve distress in Nashville. Had it not been for the ice in the mines the road could have moved 200 cars a day, whereas it only moved 150 in four days.

THIS is the last day for filing suits for the circuit court which begins on the 27th.

THE Hustonville and Moreland people are figuring on putting an electric railway between those points if they can place $10,000 worth of stock.

THE Favorite Mills at McKinney have partially changed hands. John Tomlinson and a Harrodsburg party having bought out E. D. Kennedy's interest. W. M. Dudderar retains his interest.

KY. COLS.—In addition to the super-vocal quartette, which is to appear at Walton's Opera House, Saturday night, 18th, Mrs. Chastain-Brown gives several piano solos with remarkable beauty and grace, besides being the accompanist for the singers. It is going to be a charming entertainment. Don't fail to be there.

THE verdict of the jury summoned by Coroner William Langraf was that Cornelius Bailey, colored, came to his death by the accidental discharge of his gun while trying to get a rabbit out of a rail pile. The following composed the jury: Thomas Farmer, W. T. Smith, R. G. Jones, J. W. Watson, Daniel Cooley and D. Levin.

THE Kentucky Colonels male quartette is composed of four professional musical artists, whose voices are individually and collectively unsurpassed by any other quartette ever heard on the concert stage in the United States. I can not say too much in their praise.—Frank L. Bristow, composer and musical director, Cincinnati, O. At Walton's Opera House, Saturday, 17th.

CORRECT.—"Your report of the Scott-Colson shooting affray is the most correct I have read," said Lt. Ed Morrow, of Somerset, who was on Tuesday's train en route to Frankfort to attend a hop in honor of his cousin, Miss Christine Bradley. "I was present at the unfortunate affair and it occurred practically as you have it. Col. Colson is not seriously hurt, the ball deflecting and reaching no vital point. My relationship to the parties make the trouble a most unpleasant one. Mr. Scott, you know is my first cousin, and Colson is a very dear friend. I see that Colson's brothers are on the ground, and some of Scott's friends have gone to the scene and I very much fear further trouble" said the handsome young officer, who is so much like Charlie, his twin brother, also a lieutenant, but in the 1st Regiment, that we can never tell them apart.

THE bond sale drew a large crowd and there were bidders from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Boston, Chicago and New York. Judge Bailey acted as auctioneer and after "dwelling" on them a pretty long time, finally knocked them down to Dennison, Prior & Co., of Boston—Cleveland, at a premium of $1,600 for the whole $52,000, which more than pays for the loss by reason of the failure of the Cincinnati firm to take them at a previous sale. As the average life of the bonds is 10½ years and the interest 4 per cent., the premium paid makes them pay the holder only 3.62 per cent. They were sold subject to a test of their legality, and there was some kicking by those who came to buy them unconditionally, as advertised, but as there is no doubt about their being all right the condition will cut no figure. A firm of brokers telegraphed that they had telegraphed $1,000 as a forfeit of their bid at a premium of $1,912.50, but as neither bank got such a dispatch, it cut no ice. The firms represented in person were Feder, Holzman & Co., Cincinnati, by A. Holzman; Seasongood & Mayer, Cincinnati and Cleveland, by J. C. Mayer; Randolph Kleibotte & Co., Chicago, by W. G. Humphrey; and the successful bidders, by A. S. Spencer.

CARSON.—A dispatch Wednesday to the bereaved husband's family here told of the death of Mrs. James T. Carson at Winchester, where she was taken sick, while making a tour of the State with her husband. She was here two weeks ago in apparently fine health. The grip seized her later and that complicated with a stomach trouble, caused her death. Mrs. Carson was Miss Sue Snyder, daughter of Mr. George R. Snyder, of the Planters' Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, and she and Mr. Carson first met at Rock Castle Springs. A mutual attachment soon formed which grew and ripened into happy marriage. Besides her husband, a handsome little boy of three years, Reynolds, is left to feel the loss of a loving mother. In writing of her the Courier Journal says: "She was a lovable woman, possessing many admirable traits of character, which endeared her to all, not the least beautiful being her devotion to the members of her family." This morning at the 2d Presbyterian church, Louisville, Dr. Hemphill will preach the funeral discourse and then the remains will be laid away in Cave Hill Cemetery. This is the first death to occur in a family of 10 and the broken home circle is bowed down with grief. Great sympathy is felt here for them and the young husband, who loved her with a beautiful devotion. Mesdames J. E. Portman and S. P. Stagg went to Winchester Wednesday, but arrived too late to see their sister alive. Mr. S. P. Stagg joined them in Louisville yesterday to attend the funeral.

Having assumed the management of the BLUE GRASS GROCERY, I take this method of thanking our many patrons for their trade and support in the past, with the assurance that our business relations in the future will prove mutually beneficial and agreeable. Hoping to receive a share of the public patronage, I am yours truly,

ROBT. L. MATTINGLY, Mgr.
Mr. Charlie L. Dawes, Asst.

THE court of appeals affirms the Boyle circuit court decision that towns have to keep up the pikes within their limits.

THE Lancaster Record has changed its date to read Thursday afternoon instead of Friday morning, which is sensible.

THE court of appeals affirmed Judge Saufley's decision in a school case in Mercer that when a railroad tax is collected it shall be apportioned between the colored and white children equally.

FOGG.—Our Methodist brethren will remember Prof. E. S. Fogg, of the Kentucky Colonels, to appear here tomorrow night. He was cornetist in a remarkable meeting held at their church.

McKEE.—Rev. Joseph McKee, son of Dr. W. P. McKee, late of Mt. Vernon, died at Wilmore, where he was professor in the College there. He was a nephew of John C. McKee, of London, and was here with the Wilmore students when they had such a glorious meeting with Bro. Grinstead a year or so ago. He was a most excellent young man and apparently had a great future.

THE climax of the unprecedented cold snap was noted in our last when the mercury here showed 22 degrees below. It was fearfully cold and pipes, engines, &c., were frozen solid. We experienced great difficulty even Tuesday, when the mercury had gotten up to 4 below and gradually began to rise, in securing sufficient water to run our engine, it having to be carried for several squares in buckets. In other parts of the State, the thermometers showed from 15 below at Paducah to 42 degrees below at Beaver Dam in Ohio county. It was 39 below at Lebanon and Cynthiana, 35 at Columbia and so on. Wednesday it had very much moderated and the thaw began, followed by rain and sleet Wednesday night and yesterday. This morning is cloudy with the mercury at 35 and rising.

During the cold snap, which began Feb. 4 and lasted till the 15, the mercury stood here at 7 A. M. as follows. Preserve this so that when you get to be the oldest inhabitant you can prove your assertion that you've seen it a snap colder: Feb. 4, 30 above; 5th, 28; 6th, 22; 7th, 15; 8th, 2 below; 9th, 12 below; 10th, 22 below; 11th, 4 below; 12th, 4 below; 13th, 22 below; 14th, 4 below.

Mrs. James Purvis was burned to death at Snider's Switch, on the K. C. Her clothing caught while cooking. She was 25 years of age and leaves a husband and several children, one only two weeks old.

NOTICE!

The notes and accounts belonging to the estate of Dr. G. W. Bronough have been placed in the hands of W. A. Tribble for collection. R. H. Bronough, Exor.

100-31

J. K. BAUGHMAN,
Hustonville, Ky.

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

100-31

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Tuesdays and Fridays.

$2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

KENTUCKY CENTRAL DIVISION.

No. 5 Arrives at Stanford at 1:08 A. M.
No. 4 Leaves Stanford at 2:10 A. M.
No. 21 Arrives at Rowland at 12:00 DAY.
No. 22 Leaves Stanford at 2:30 P. M.

KNOXVILLE DIVISION.

No. 34 Train going North 12:37 p.m.
No. 4 Leaves Stanford at 2:12 p.m.
No. 25 " " South 1:22 p.m.
No. 22 " " 1:24 p.m.

For all points.

THIRTY TICKETS SOLD.
BAGGAGE CHECKED THROUGH.

For any information enquire of

JOE S. RICE, Agent,
Stanford, Ky.

FRANKFORT AND CINCINNATI.

Trains leave Frankfort at 7 A. M. and 3:40 P. M., connecting at Georgetown with Q. & C. and reaching Paris at 8:40 A. M. and 5:30 P. M., connecting at Georgetown with Q. & C. and reaching Frankfort 9:15 A. M. and 7:15 P. M.

JOSEPH R. NEWTON, A. G. P. A.

QUEEN & CRESCENT.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
No. 1 South 12:02 p.m. No. 2 North 4:11 p.m.
No. 2 " 11:50 a.m. " 4 " 3:45 p.m.
No. 5 " 11:25 a.m. " 6 " 1:45 p.m.
No. 9 " 8:05 p.m. " 10 " 6:00 p.m.

Nos. 1 and 2 do not stop. 9 and 10 run no further than Junction City.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Mason Hotel

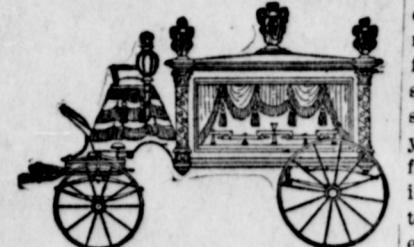

MRS. U. D. SIMPSON, Prop.

Lancaster, : Kentucky.

Newly furnished; clean beds; splendid table. Everything first-class. Porter's meet all trains.

89

J. C. McClary

UNDERTAKER!

And Dealer in

HARNESS, SADDLERY, &c.

STANFORD, KY.

MONON ROUTE

(CHICAGO, PEORIA & KNOXVILLE RAILWAY)

The Favorite Line

LOUISVILLE

TO CHICAGO.

Trains Morning and Evening from Union Station, 10th and Broadway.

Passengers desiring information and rates to Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska and points in the far West, including California, should address

Frank J. Reed, Gen. Pass. Agt., E. H. Bacon, Dis. Pass. Agt.

W. H. McDowell, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. Charles H. Rockwell Traffic Mgr.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications will be carefully kept secret. All costs paid sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge.

Scientific American, a handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 65 F St., Washington, D. C.

MIDDLEBURG.

The school at this place is progressing despite the inclement weather and McKinley prosperity.

Michel Taylor and Supt. Lay have put telephones in their houses and Dr. Wesley will put one in a few days. There is some talk of putting in a switch board at this place.

We are glad to say that the Liberty correspondent is mistaken. Middleburg's deputy postmaster, who attends to the office at this place, is a democrat, and while he is only deputy in name, he is P. M. in reality.

It is no easy matter for the INTERIOR JOURNAL readers at this place to get used to the "oddity" of receiving their paper a day late. In fact we have received the "old reliable" for so long on Tuesdays and Fridays that it is hard to get onto the new way."

There are something like half a hundred young ladies and gentlemen of Casey in the various colleges and universities of the State. Duke and Steuben Godbey have entered Centre College since our last letter. Albert Keeney has resigned his position as salesman for Tanner Bros., at McKinney, to accept a more lucrative position in the store of Michel Taylor at this place.

Bro. B. we admire your courage to speak out, but sorry that you commit yourself so unequivocally against internal improvements, and hope that you are more enlightened on the subject after having read the Liberty correspondence in last week's L. J. Bro. B. has taken the pains to interview the citizens of the Grove vicinity and find them unalterably opposed to the "bridge." Poor fellows! Yes we are still in favor of a bridge at Liberty—also two at this place and one across Indian creek for the benefit of our esteemed Indian creek quill driver.

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

THAT D—N FOOL DEBOE.

Gov Bradley said to the Georgetown News:

I never had a desire to be a United States Senator but once, and that has been in the past month. I would like to be a Senator for just 30 days and show the administration that there was one republican who was not afraid to open his mouth. I am opposed to the way the United States Senators are chosen. The people have no voice in the matter, but it seems the place is sold to the highest bidder. There's Quay; he's trying the game, and I see where the committee to investigate the election of Mark Hanna in Ohio, has decided not to report.

But Deboe! Whenever I think about him it reminds me of the story of a mother and her foolish son: A fashionable and wealthy lady of one of our Kentucky towns had a foolish son. His name was John, and his mother was unceasing in her efforts to make the best out of the boy and upon the same impress upon him he had no sense. One night there was to be a big party given and John was invited. His mother dressed him nicely and he looked as neat as if he had just been brought from a band box. "Now Johnny," she said, "you are to make your entry in society to-night, and in doing so I want you to say just as little as possible; in fact, don't talk at all if you can prevent it." Johnny and his mother went to the party, and while every one were enjoying themselves Johnny stood close to his mother. Finally one fellow came up, tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Johnny, this is a swell party." Johnny didn't say anything. The fellow came up and tapped Johnny again and said: "I say Johnny, this is a grand party." Johnny didn't say a word. The fellow then walked around in front of him and said: "Johnny, you are a d—n fool!" Johnny turned to his mother and said: "Now mother, you see there, that fellow discovered I was a d—n fool and I hadn't said a word." And so it is with the people by Deboe.

Attorney John J. Cornelison, the lawyer who whorshipped Judge Richard Reid at Mt. Sterling 15 years ago, because, as judge of the superior court of Kentucky, Reid had rendered a decision adverse to Cornelison, died at his home in Lexington Tuesday of apoplexy. Cornelison served three years in jail as punishment for the offense.

But Deboe! Whenever I think about him it reminds me of the story of a mother and her foolish son: A fashionable and wealthy lady of one of our Kentucky towns had a foolish son. His name was John, and his mother was unceasing in her efforts to make the best out of the boy and upon the same impress upon him he had no sense. One night there was to be a big party given and John was invited. His mother dressed him nicely and he looked as neat as if he had just been brought from a band box. "Now Johnny," she said, "you are to make your entry in society to-night, and in doing so I want you to say just as little as possible; in fact, don't talk at all if you can prevent it." Johnny and his mother went to the party, and while every one were enjoying themselves Johnny stood close to his mother. Finally one fellow came up, tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Johnny, this is a swell party." Johnny didn't say anything. The fellow came up and tapped Johnny again and said: "I say Johnny, this is a grand party." Johnny didn't say a word. The fellow then walked around in front of him and said: "Johnny, you are a d—n fool!" Johnny turned to his mother and said: "Now mother, you see there, that fellow discovered I was a d—n fool and I hadn't said a word." And so it is with the people by Deboe.

OUR ACCOUNT EXAGGERATED.

DANVILLE, Feb. 14.—I beg to correct a statement in your paper in regard to the fire in Caldwell College.

1st. There was nothing mysterious about the origin, it was caused by workmen thawing out frozen pipes.

2d. There were no children fit the building where the fire was. They were in the class rooms, a safe distance from all danger and the fire was nearly extinguished before they knew there was any.

3d. The children did not come near freezing at all. They were not exposed in any way except as a few exposed themselves to see where the fire was. School was not interrupted over 25 or 30 minutes and everything was then moving on as usual.

J. C. ELY.

THE RAVAGES OF GRIP.

That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones, aches in your children and self, and a sore throat, palp in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery, which promptly cures the worst, cough heat, inflammation, and all the other symptoms and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cents and $1. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Seaman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 29 years. Then Bucklin's Aronica Salve cured him. Ulcers, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Febrile, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Vile cure on earth. 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

COLORED RECRUITS.—The war department has wired Lieut. W. T. Johnston, recruiting officer at Lexington, Ky., to enlist colored applicants for cavalry and infantry service, sending the former to Fort Grant, Arizona, and the latter to Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City. This is an excellent opportunity for young colored men to get into the regular army. Recruits for white infantry and cavalry regiments are also wanted. Apply to Lieut. W. T. Johnston, Main St., Lexington, Ky.

DANGERS OF THE GRIP.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease.

It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

THE DEADLY GRIP.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs. Don't neglect the grippe. It will open the door to pneumonia and consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains never-letting cough. Don't waste precious time with remedies, take the grippe remedy, cheap syrup. It comes at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dread after effects from the malady. Price 50 cents and $1. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

BARNUM & BAILEY announce that their show will not return to the United States, but will remain permanently in England. The firm will be converted into a limited liability company, with a capital of $2,000,000.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

ATTORNEY JOHN J. CORNELISON,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine."

<p